JANE: I got here a few days ago, on Saturday. No – wait a minute, what's today? – Sorry Q21 Friday, not Saturday.

TIM: But we didn't have to be here till today.

JANE: Yes, I know, but I wanted to get my things moved into my room, and just take a look around. So, did you decide to do English in the end?

TIM: No, I changed my mind and opted for history instead. And you're doing Q22 biology if I remember correctly.

JANE: Yes, although to start with I couldn't decide between that and geography.

TIM: How much reading have you got? I was given an amazingly long list of books to read. See!

JANE: Wow, it does look pretty long.

TIM: Well, I counted Q23 57. I could hardly believe it! What's your list like?

JANE: Well, it's not as long as yours, but it's still pretty big. There are Q24 43. I don't know how I'm going to get through them all.

TIM: Well you don't have to read them all this week! You just have to stay ahead of the lectures and seminars. Have you got your class schedule yet?

JANE: Yep. It came with the reading list. When's your first lecture?

TIM: Q25 Tuesday. How about you?

JANE: The day after. It's my busiest day; I've got two lectures in the morning and one in the afternoon.

JANE: It's going to be different from school, isn't it?

TIM: Yeah, particularly the lectures. Have you got any special strategy for listening to lectures?

Questions 26-30

Type NO MORE THAN THREE WORDS for each answer.

- 26 What is Jane's study strategy in lectures?
- 27 What is Tim's study strategy for reading?
- 28 What is the subject of Tim's first lecture?
- 29 What is the title of Tim's first essay?
- 30 What is the subject of Jane's first essay?

JANE: Well I'm going to Q26 use a cassette recorder and record them all.

TIM: What! Are you allowed to?

JANE: Sure. Lots of people do it nowadays. It means you can listen to the lectures all over again later, and make really good notes.

TIM: I couldn't do that. I like to take notes as I'm listening. I usually find I get all the important points. Reading is different of course. My approach is to Q27 skim the book first to see what's important and what isn't. It saves hours of time.

JANE: But what if you miss something?

TIM: You don't mean you're going to read every word, do you?

JANE: Well, that's what I usually do.

TIM: Well, that's up to you, but I think you're crazy!

JANE: What's your first lecture on, anyway?

TIM: Oh, it's a lecture on Q28 the French Revolution.

JANE: The French Revolution! How boring!

TIM: It's not boring at all! It was an amazing period of history. It changed everything in Europe. So what's your first lecture about?

JANE: It's about animal behaviour. It sounds really interesting.

TIM: Look, I was on my way to the library. I'm going to get some of these books out and start reading for the first essay I've got to write.

JANE: And what have you got to write about?

TIM: Well, you'll never believe it, I think our professor must have a sense of humour. He's given us the title "Q29 Why study history?"

JANE: That's a good one. When you find the answer, let me know!

TIM: I'm going to enjoy writing it. Have you been given any writing assignments yet?

JANE: Yes, I've got to write about Q30 animal language.

TIM: Hmm! That sounds a challenge. I suppose you'll be off to the zoo to do field research.
