This is your chance to tell us about yourself, and the qualities and experience you have that make you the ideal person for the job. For the Travel Sales Consultant role, you'll need to provide us with evidence that you have extensive experience in a marketing environment, as well as a solid academic background. If you’re interested in a career as a Corporate Travel Consultant you’ll need at least one year’s experience as a Travel Consultant.

If you reach Stage Two, we'll arrange a telephone discussion, where you can find out more about us, including the rewards on offer. For instance, once a year we like to acknowledge outstanding efforts and celebrate successes with our co-workers, and we have prize-giving ceremonies designed to do just this.

In Stage Three we'll be able to give you more information about GZJ Travel and find out more about you, at an interview which you'll attend with a small group of other applicants. We'll be asking you about your ambitions and of course your sales ability, the most vital quality for our business. You'll also be required to complete a psychometric test so we can find out more about your working style and characteristics. We'll also tell you about some of the perks – for example, as a Flight Center employee you can take advantage of the free consultations conducted by our in-house health and wellbeing team, Healthwise.

Next, in Stage Four, you'll be introduced to the Area Leader and you'll also visit one of our shops, where you'll meet the team and find out more about the sort of work that's involved. If you successfully pass Stage Four, you’ve reached the final stage of the process and we'll be in touch with a job offer! And if you accept, we'll book you into our Learning Center to get your training underway as soon as possible. Careerwise, the department responsible for the training, will then organise individual coaching to assist in setting goals for your career path.
