We will dock for two nights in Salerno, so you will have two evenings and a whole day to explore the area. If you’re not going to dine in our range of excellent restaurants, there’s the opportunity to explore the town, which is home to mozzarella cheese (so a pizza is a must) and the Amalfi lemons (the main ingredient of the famous drink, Limoncello). The town itself boasts the centuries-old Arechi Castle, with its magnificent sea views, the terraced Minerva Gardens (older guests should note that both requiring arduous climbing) and Salerno Cathedral, famed for its Byzantine doors.
