PIETER: A current account.

WOMAN: Right. I've got the application form here then. We have different types – I see you've got our leaflet there.

Complete the form below.

Type ONE WORD AND/ OR A NUMBER for each answer.

OPENING A BANK ACCOUNT

Example	Answer
Application for a	Current bank account

Type of current account : The 1  account

Full name of applicant : Pieter Henes

Date of birth : 2

Joint account holder(s) : No

Current address : 3  Exeter

Time at current address : 4

PIETER: I've decided on the one called Q<sub>1</sub> 'Select.'

WOMAN: Right, that's fine, so, first of all, can I have your full name, please?

PIETER: Yes, it's Pieter Henes. That's P-I-E-T-E-R.

WOMAN: Is it H-E-double N-E-S?

PIETER: Uh, only one N actually. It's a less common spelling of the name.

WOMAN: Oh, right. OK. And what's your date of birth, please?

PIETER: The Q<sub>2</sub> twenty-seventh of the first, nineteen seventy-three.

WOMAN: Right. And will this be a joint account?

PIETER: No, just myself.

WOMAN: OK, fine. And where are you living, Mr. Henes?

PIETER: Q<sub>3</sub> 15. Riverside.

WOMAN: Is that all one word?

PIETER: Yes.

WOMAN: Exeter?

PIETER: Yes.

WOMAN: How long have you been at your present address? Er, is it more than two years?

PIETER: Ah, just Q<sub>4</sub> two weeks actually. I only arrived in the country a month ago. I'm from Holland.

WOMAN: Oh, that's fine. But we normally ask for a previous address in that ease.

PIETER: Oh yes, well, it's Rielsdorf 2. That's R-I-E-L-S-D-O-R-F 2, Utrecht.

WOMAN: Holland. OK. Thank you. Do you have a daytime telephone number?

Previous address : Rielsdorf 2. Utrecht. Holland

Telephone : work 5

home 796431

Occupation : 6

Identity (security) : Name of his 7  : Siti

Opening sum : 8 €  to be transferred from Fransen Bank, Utrecht

Statements : Every 9

Requests : Supply information about the bank's 10  service.

PIETER: Yes. I think the number at my office is Q<sub>5</sub> six-oh-six-two-nine-five, Um, just a minute, I'd better check, Oh, no sorry, six-one-six. I'm not used to it yet. Would you like my home number too?

WOMAN: Yes, please.

PIETER: It's seven-nine-six-four-three-one.

WOMAN: Are they both local numbers?

PIETER: Yes.

WOMAN: Right. And your occupation?

PIETER: Well, I'm in Britain as a project manager, but that's not my main job. I'm an Q<sub>6</sub> engineer by profession.

WOMAN: I see. I think I'll put that then. It's shorter! Now we usually ask for a piece of information which we can use to check your identity, for security reasons. You know, if you phone us.

PIETER: Like, erm, my wife's first name?

WOMAN: Q<sub>7</sub> Mother's might be better. It's less likely to be known.

PIETER: OK. Hers is Siti.

WOMAN: Siti?

PIETER: Yes, S-I-T-I. It's Indonesian.

WOMAN: Fine. And how much would you like to open your account with? We usually ask for a minimum sum of £50. That's about €75.

PIETER: Well. I'm going to transfer € Q<sub>8</sub> 2,000 from my Dutch account, just till I get paid. In fact, I wanted to ask you about that. What's the best way to do it

WOMAN: It depends, which bank you're with.

PIETER: It's the Fransen Bank in Utrecht.

WOMAN: OK, fine. I'll check that in a minute. If we have links with them we can do a direct transfer. But it's not a big problem either way. Um, let's see. How often would you like to receive statements?

PIETER: I haven't really thought. Um, what's the usual thing?

WOMAN: It's up to you. Some people like them weekly.

PIETER: Oh, no, that's too often. Can I have them sent, um, once a Q<sub>9</sub> month?

WOMAN: Yes, that's fine. Is there anything else?

PIETER: I was thinking of registering for your Q<sub>10</sub> internet service at some stage.

WOMAN: Oh, yes. Would you like me to send you information about that?

PIETER: Please, yes.

WOMAN: And would you like to receive information about the bank's other services – insurance, loans, anything like that?

PIETER: Hmm, I don't think so, thanks.

WOMAN: That's OK then. And one last thing, if you agree ...
