Representative: Yes, of course. Computer classes always start in the first week of the month, and the way it works is we offer one computer class for the entire month, so you might spend one month on Q₅ databases, another month on Excel, and so on. Classes meet once a week on Tuesday afternoons. The next class starts February 1st.

Student: Okay, so for the upcoming month February?

Representative: February is going to be databases. There are Q₆ 24 places still free on that course, and it costs £40 per person.

Student: February databases, 24 openings, £40. Okay.

Representative: Excel starts in March, and that's nearly full. Only four slots left. It's £45.

Student: Okay, Excel March, Only fourth lot left. Got it.

Representative: April is outlook. That is never as popular since it cost so much more. But you get a free CD. It is £ Q₇ 60 for the month and there are 19 places left.

Student: Okay, April Outlook £60. Is that it?

Representative: No. On the third of June, we start a word course. We have 16 vacancies for that. At the moment, it's also expensive at £55.

Student: 3rd of Q₈ June word, Q₉ 16 vacancies, £ Q₁₀ 55. Now, do I call the same number to book a place in one of these classes?

Representative: No. You have to call Mary Jones. I think. Yes. Mary Jones, Extension 9623.

Student: Sorry. Could you repeat that number?

Representative: Yes. Extension 9623, please call her before 6 p.m.
