What you can do to help

• Make sure your child arrives at school on time. This encourages habits of good timekeeping and lessens any possible classroom disruption. Q2 If your child arrives after the register has closed without a good reason, this will be recorded as an 'unauthorised' absence for that session.

• If your child has to miss school it is vital that you let the school know why, preferably on the first morning of absence. (Your child's school will have an attendance policy explaining how this should be done.)

Q3 If your child is absent from school, you must send the school a letter to explain why. NOT GIVEN.

• If you know or think that your child is having difficulties attending the school you should contact the school. It is better to do this sooner rather than later, as most problems can be dealt with very quickly.

Q4 Staff who think a child is having difficulties at school will contact the parents. NOT GIVEN.

Authorised and Unauthorised Absence

If your child is absent and the school either does not receive an explanation from you, or considers the explanation unsatisfactory, it will record your child's absence as 'unauthorised', that is, as truancy.

Q5 Schools will contact other authorities about children who take frequent unauthorised absences. NOT GIVEN.

Most absences for acceptable reasons will be authorised by your child's school:

- Sickness
- Unavoidable medical or dental appointments (if possible, arrange these for after school or during school holidays)
- An interview with a prospective employer or college
- Exceptional family circumstances, such as bereavement
- Days of religious observance

Your child's school will not authorise absence for the following reasons:

- Shopping during school hours
- Day trips
- Holidays which have not been agreed
- Birthdays
- Looking after brothers or sisters or ill relatives.
